Dear [Name]

I am writing to respond to your request for data dated March 2016. Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust can confirm that it holds the data that you requested. As per our telephone communication here are the responses:

1. Do you keep exemption data, covering overseas visitors?
   - Only those that are reported to the Overseas visitors department

2. How many exempt overseas visitor patients did you treat since 1 April 2015 to 1 March 2015?
   - 1230 patients were reported to the Overseas visitors department

3. How many European (EEA) “ordinarily resident” (OR) patients did you treat since 1 April 2015 to 1 March 2015?
   - 1230 patients were reported to the overseas department. Please note EEA (OR) patients will be marked as “NHS” patients. As a result, we are unable to distinguish between UK nationals and EEA (OR).

4. Of those in question 3, how many received maternity care?
   - This will require checking the EPR (Electronic Patient Record) for every European (EEA) “ordinarily resident” (OR) patients that were reported to the Overseas visitors department, under s12 we unable to provide this data as it will exceed the cost limit of £450.

5. Of those in question 3, how many received treatment at a department other than maternity? Please break the total down by department. Include up to 5 most popular departments.
   - This will require checking the EPR of every European (EEA) “ordinarily resident” (OR) patients that were reported to the overseas visitors department, under s12 we unable to provide this data as it will exceed the cost limit of £450.

6. Of those in Q3, please state the 5 most popular treatments received by European (EEA) “ordinarily resident” (OR) patients since 1 April 2015 – 1 Mar 2016, and give numbers for each treatment if known.
   - This will require checking the EPR of every European (EEA) “ordinarily resident” (OR) patients that were reported to the overseas visitors department, under s12 we unable to provide this data as it will exceed the cost limit of £450.

The answer to Q7 is not applicable as a result Q8 – Q11 does not apply to our organisation.

Please note that on 1 November 2011 the Oxford Radcliffe Hospitals NHS Trust (ORH) merged with the Nuffield Orthopaedic Hospital NHS Trust (NOC) to form the Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust (OUH). Our response reflects these changes. Therefore, we consider that Oxford University Hospitals Trust has released to you all of the information that it holds in relation to your request.
