Supporting you with health complaints

© seAp 2016 | Reg. Charity No. 1080679 | Company No. 3963421
Do you have a complaint about an NHS service?

If you feel you have not had the service you expected from the National Health Service (NHS) and want to complain, the law says you have the right to have the support of an advocate.

The Health Complaints Advocacy Service can

- Support you with your NHS complaint.
- Provide a Self Help Pack to help you manage your complaint.
- Put you in touch with other people who can help you.
- Involve an interpreter or a translator, if you need one.
- Meet with you where you feel comfortable if you are not able to visit our office or speak on the phone.

Our advocates can

- Help you write letters to the right people.
- Go with you to meetings with medical professionals.
- Give you the opportunity to speak confidentially to someone who is independent of the NHS.
- Help you explore your options at every stage of the complaint.
- Answer questions to help you make decisions.
- Act on your direction rather than the wishes of others.

Our advocates cannot

- Help you to claim compensation.
- Get an NHS Employee disciplined.
- Give legal advice.
- Give medical advice.

NHS Complaints Advocates cannot support you with matters outside of the NHS complaints procedure.

What does an advocate do?

An experienced worker, known as an advocate, can help and support you to make your complaint.

Meeting your needs and speaking your language

We will make every effort to adapt how we communicate with you to meet your needs. Please let us know what your particular needs are, and we will do our best to help.
