

Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing to respond to your request [REDACTED] April 2016. Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust can confirm that it holds the data that you requested.

The Trust has provided information based on our telephone conversation on the 11th April 2016:

- Avoid the cost limit manually held data is excluded
- Flexible with the periods the Trust can provide information
- Only electronically held data is provided

Please find the information below:

FY:	Churchill	Horton General	Nuffield Orthopaedic	John Radcliffe	Sobell House	Total for each year
2011/12						Unknown as a different reporting system was in use
2012/13						11
2013/14						63
2014/15						82
2015/16	45	16	6	110	2	179

 2012 spans a period of transition from Safeguard to Datix.

It was only during 2015 that the Trust started to report the incidents by site.

Of note, the Trust carried out a programme to encourage reporting and escalation of incidents from February 2015 and this has clearly resulted in the intended effect of more serious incidents being declared and investigated with associated learning.

Please note that on 1 November 2011 the Oxford Radcliffe Hospitals NHS Trust (ORH) merged with the Nuffield Orthopaedic Hospital NHS Trust (NOC) to form the Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust (OUH). Our response reflects these changes. Therefore, we consider that Oxford University Hospitals Trust has released to you all of the information that it holds in relation to your request.

In order to comply with our obligations under the Data Protection Act we have redacted numbers to “<5” where numbers in a particular patient group are less than 5. This is to reduce the possibility of any individual being identifiable from this information or by combining it with information that may already be in the public domain.
