

Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing to respond to your request [REDACTED] January 2016. Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust can confirm that it holds the data that you requested.

1. Please confirm whether literature (and/or communications of any kind) was sent to hospitals nearby or nationally as to the existence of the open 360 FONAR scanner?

The community were aware the OUH had an open scanner (not specifically a 360 FONAR) this was on our web site and communicated to referrers at the time of installation.

2. Was literature and/ or other communications also sent to general practitioners?

No, they don't have direct access to MRI

3. Please advise as to what marketing, publicity and/or publications have been produced in making the medical community aware of the existence of the open FONAR scanner.

None by OUH

Please note that on 1 November 2011 the Oxford Radcliffe Hospitals NHS Trust (ORH) merged with the Nuffield Orthopaedic Hospital NHS Trust (NOC) to form the Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust (OUH). Our response reflects these changes. Therefore, we consider that Oxford University Hospitals Trust has released to you all of the information that it holds in relation to your request.
